TRAIL NAME	LOCATION	DESCRIPTION
The Family Trail Purple	Trail entrance located on the east side of Hampton Valley Road, opposite Rainbow Lake, (which is on west side of Hampton Valley Road).	This trail features three loops. Each loop introduces new riders to modest climbs, rolling terrain and minimal rocky features. It is designed as an introductory trail. The trail can be ridden in both directions and has one entrance, located on Hampton Valley Road.
The Beginner-Intermediate Trail Green	To access this trail, cross the earthen dam at Rainbow Lake and turn left after a short climb.	This enjoyable trail crosses streams, presents short and long climbs and offers challenge lines beside the main line of the trail. It does feature modest rocky sections. The downhill sections have rolling features and modest technical challenges.
The Intermediate Trail Yellow	To access this trail, cross the earthen dam at Rainbow Lake and turn right after a short climb. An alternate access point to this trail is located on the west side of Hampton Valley Road. This access is located north (downhill) of Rainbow Lake. It sits just uphill from the access to the Advanced Trail. It also sits immediately across Hampton Valley Road from the entrance to the Connector Trail	This challenging trail features long, technical (rocky) climbs, rolling downhill sections and one stream crossing. Challenge features are located alongside the trail to engage riders. This trail is comprised of two distinct loops and can be accessed near Rainbow Lake and further north (downhill) on Hampton Valley Road.
The Advanced Trail Red	Access to this trail is located on the west side of Hampton Valley Road. This access is located north (downhill) of Rainbow Lake. It sits just downhill from the access to the Advanced Trail. It also sits immediately across Hampton Valley Road from the entrance to the Connector Trail	This very challenging trail features long, steep climbs, technical terrain and rugged challenge features. It requires the most skill and fitness to ride.
The Connector Trail Orange	This trail can be accessed from Hampton Valley Road, Crystal Fountain Road and from Annandale Road.	This linear trail brings riders from the mountain to within a one mile road ride of downtown, historic Emmitsburg. Long, technical climbs alternate with fun, flow sections and a session site names "The Vortex."

Obey all posted rules. Trails are open Sundays only in Spring and Fall during various hunting seasons.
